Message from Inspector Ed Brown

Welcome to this month's newsletter. Our advice during the warmer weather is to please bear in mind the safety of your valuables. I encourage you to lock your windows and doors when you are out and about also to keep your cars and vans locked and either remove or store your valuables out of sight.

Your views are important to us and if you believe there is an issue we need to make a priority them please come along to our next engagement or priority setting meeting, details on both are overleaf.

Message from your Engagement Officer PC Pete Davison

In recent weeks we have seen an increase in reports of doorstep cold callers and we are asking residents to be on their guard even if they are displaying a No Cold Calling sticker. This follows a number of recent reports from residents who have had cold callers at their door despite displaying a sticker, with some reporting that the callers can be difficult to turn away and in some cases verbally aggressive when the presence of the sticker is pointed out.

For further advice please see the Trading Standards website:

www.norfolk.gov.uk/business/trading-standards/scams/consumer-alerts

No Cold Calling Stickers are available at the Weekly Engagement Surgery at your local Police Station.

You can report doorstep cold calling incidents to Norfolk Trading Standards via their partners the Citizens Advice consumer helpline on 03454 04 05 06 or to Norfolk Police on 101. In an emergency always dial 999.

Neighbourhood Priorities

The following priorities were agreed at the Safer Neighbourhood Action Panel Meeting held at Fakenham Police Station on Wednesday 23rd May 2018 :

1. Alcohol related ASB and the night time economy
2. Vehicle ASB including mobility vehicles around Fakenham Town Centre
3. Deter and educate regarding fly tipping

What is happening in your area

Beat Manager PC Richard Dawson

Weekly Engagement Surgery

Fakenham Police Station, Norwich Road, Fakenham - Every Wednesday 1pm—3pm

An opportunity for residents to meet their local officers face to face.

The next Public Engagement Meeting for Fakenham and surrounding villages

6:30pm on Wednesday 22nd August 2018 at Fakenham Police Station, Norwich Road, Fakenham

Why not come along and have your say? After the meeting the Safer Neighbourhood Action Panel will discuss and decide the priorities for all partners to act upon for the next three months. The adopted priorities will be published on the Norfolk Constabulary website, via Police Connect and Social Media.
